IT'S VOLLEYBALL SEASON

Volleyball season began this week. The grade 4/5 team will practice Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 7:50 am to 8:15 am. The grade 6/7 team will practice Tuesdays at lunch.

REMEMBRANCE ASSEMBLY

We will have a special assembly next Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 2:30 pm focussing on Remembrance Day. Families and community members are invited to attend.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Schools will be closed Wednesday, Nov. 11 for Remembrance Day. Students will attend Friday, Nov. 13 in lieu of the holiday.

H1N1 INFORMATION

Flu symptoms include: fever, cough, sore throat, body aches, headache, lack of appetite, chills and fatigue, and, occasionally, vomiting and diarrhea. Please keep your child at home if he/she displays the mentioned symptoms. Your child may return to school when she/he no longer shows symptoms. A link has been put on our school's website with more information, symptoms and treatment of influenza.

PURDY'S ORDERS DUE!

Orders for Purdy's Chocolates are due at the school Monday, November 9.

THANK-YOU! THANK-YOU!

A big thank you to Karen Planedin and Marie Seymour for a delicious spaghetti lunch yesterday! Special thanks to Amy Fehr and Daniel Shione for their help with lunch!

Thank you to all the parents who baked and brought cookies for our Hallowe'en Fun Afternoon. Students enjoyed the great selection to choose from!

Special thanks also to parents who helped with Hallowe'en Fun activities.
